

Video:

PRAKTYCZNY ANGIELSKI W CODZIENNEJ KOMUNIKACJI z Krzysztofem Sarneckim

Różnica między czasownikami MAKE i DO

DO - czynić coś, robić,

MAKE - robić w sensie: wypracować, wyprodukować, wytworzyć pracę

'DO' FOR ACTIVITIES AROUND THE HOUSE that produce no physical object. - INTANGIBLES

- do homework - I usually do my homework after dinner.
- do housework - Both my mother and father do the housework.
- do the ironing - I like to do the ironing while I watch TV.
- do the dishes - It's my job to do the dishes after dinner every evening.
- do a job - Tom does a few jobs around the house.

DO FOR GENERAL IDEAS - often used with the words 'something, nothing, anything, everything, etc.' INTANGIBLES

- Do something/anything - I'm not doing anything today.
- Do everything for someone - He does everything for his mother.
- Do nothing - She's doing nothing at the moment.

DO IMPORTANT EXPRESSIONS WITH 'DO' - INTANGIBLES

- do one's best - They did their best last weekend.
- do good - A trip in the country will do you good.
- do harm - Smoking does harm to your health.
- do a favor - Can you do me a favor?
- do business - We do business in countries around the world.

MAKE' - for an activity that creates something that you can touch. INTANGIBLES

- make food - Let's make hamburgers this evening.
- make a cup of/some tea/coffee - I made a cup of tea. Would you like some?
- make a mess - Look at the mess you made!
- BUT... Let's DO IT!

'MAKE' WITH MONEY

- make money - Jennifer makes a lot of money at her job.
- make a profit - She made a huge profit off the last deal.
- make a deal - We made a two-year deal.
- make a fortune - I think he'll make a fortune. He's really smart.

IMPORTANT EXPRESSIONS WITH 'MAKE'

- make plans - I've made plans for the weekend.
- make an exception - I'll make an exception to the rule for you.
- make arrangements - We've made arrangements for next week.
- make a telephone call - Let me make a telephone call.
- make it work - Come on, Peter, you know how to make it work!
- make a decision - I need you to make a decision by Monday.
- make a mistake - Susan made a mistake on the report.
- make noise - The children are making too much noise.
- make an excuse - Tell me the truth. Don't make an excuse.
- make an effort - I'd like you to make an effort next time.

SŁOWNICTWO NA WAKACJE - HOTEL

I have a reservation..

May I see your ID, please?

A: Would you like to use your credit card?

B: Yes, I would. Do you accept American _____

B: You're in room 507. It's a single queen-size bed, spacious, and nonsmoking. Is that suitable?

A: Yes, it sounds like everything I expected.

B: Here's your key, sir.

SŁOWNICTWO NA WAKACJE - LOTNISKO

I'd like to check-in

Is anyone travelling with you today?

I'm by myself.

May I have your passport?

Will you be checking any bags or suitcases?

You're all checked in.

Please take off your shoes and belt.

Please step through the metal detector.

SŁOWNICTWO NA WAKACJE - RESTAURACJA

Can I help you?

Have you booked a table/

Can I take your coat?

May I show you to a table?

Can I take your order Sir/Madam?

What would you like to drink?

How would you like your steak (rare, medium, well-done)

Do you want a salad with it?

What kind of dressing?

What would you like for dessert?

Did you enjoy your meal?